DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species a, claims 1-5 in the reply filed on September 9, 2009 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 6-15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on September 9, 2009.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(c), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japanese Patent Application 2003-226104 A (equivalent to Tanno (7,140,412 B2) in view of European Patent Applications 1 253 025 A2 and 0 870 631 A2.

The only difference between the claimed tire and the JP '104 tire is the at least two kinds of porous materials in the sound absorbent strip, however both EP references teach to provide this to optimize sound absorbing properties (EP '025 paragraphs 0025-0029 and EP '631 embodiments of Figures 3 and 4, translation: different foam densities=different sound absorption characteristics with respect to frequencies, specification p. 8 lines 5-18); it would therefore have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide this in the above tire to optimize sound absorbing properties.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 3-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
